

tituna mariana lerma

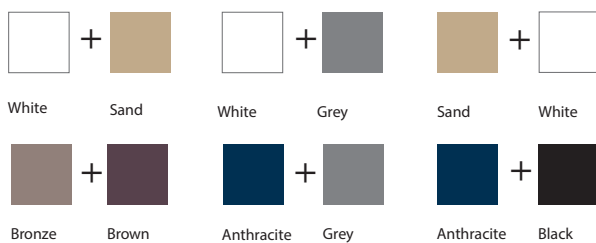

The Tituna collection combines tradition and modernity in equal proportion. Straight and slender lines make up an image of contemporary minimalism, whilst the string weave on the seat and backrest recall the aesthetics of Spanish traditional furniture which inspired it. This design led to a new collection of pieces that share the same characteristics, maintaining simplicity in their structural form without disregarding the century old and artisanal feeling of hand-woven seats. Tituna is a simple and contemporary collection consisting of a dining chair, armchair, rocking chair, pouf, bench and low tables with a traditional air that brings with it a certain degree of domesticity, helping to make any space welcoming and cozy.
